NATIONAL UNIVERSITY LIPA • SINAG-BUGHAW ARCHIVE

Terms and Conditions & Privacy Notice

Effective Date: October 2026 • Official Digital Yearbook System

Welcome to Sinag-Bughaw, the official multi-modal digital yearbook system of National University – Lipa. By creating an account and accessing this platform, you agree to comply with and be legally bound by the terms and policies set forth in this agreement.

1. DATA COLLECTION AND USAGE

- Personal Information: The system securely captures your official student/alumni name, Student ID, institutional email address, academic program, and graduation year/batch to verify authorized affiliation with National University – Lipa.
- Media & Content: Uploaded profile portraits, gallery contributions, and personal milestones are hosted exclusively within a secure campus network environment.

2. FACE RECOGNITION AND BIOMETRIC FEATURES

- Intelligent Retrieval: Sinag-Bughaw incorporates facial recognition algorithms to assist users in locating peers and navigating class directories efficiently.
- Strict Scope: Biometric templates and facial data are restricted entirely to platform navigation. Harvesting or extracting biometric data for external use is strictly prohibited.

3. SYSTEM SECURITY AND ANTI-SCREENSHOT POLICY

- Active Protection: To safeguard user data against unauthorized exposure, the platform implements runtime security protocols including focus-loss detection and dynamic user watermarking.
- Leak Mitigation: Any intentional circumvention of security features or capture of sensitive records via external devices may lead to immediate revocation of system access and disciplinary measures.

4. ACCOUNT PRIVACY AND VISIBILITY CONTROLS

- User Autonomy: Members retain full governance over profile accessibility through configurable privacy tiers: Public, Batchmates Only, or Private.
- Confidentiality Enforcement: Selecting restricted visibility automatically masks profile attributes from unauthorized peer accounts across all search and directory modules.

5. COMMUNITY CODE OF CONDUCT

- Professional Standard: All interactions, posts, and comments must reflect the core values of National University. Harassment, misinformation, or malicious exploitation will result in strict institutional penalties.
- Compliance: Continued utilization of the portal implies ongoing adherence to university student handbooks and data privacy mandates.
